Attachment C Annual EEO Public File Report

Covering the period from April 1, 2021 to March 31, 2022

Section 3: Supplemental (non-vacancy specific) recruitment activities undertaken by Positive Alternative Radio, Inc.

WCQR participated in other activities designed by the station employment unit reasonably calculated to further the goal of disseminating information as to employment opportunities in broadcasting to job candidates who might otherwise be unaware of such opportunities.

Establishment of an Internship Program

Positive Alternative Radio, Inc. ("PAR") continues growth with an internship program designed to assist members of the community, mainly students from local colleges and universities, to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment. Those students who are involved in the internship program gain knowledge in the areas of news, weather, production/operations, and overall business skills in order to get real experience in broadcasting.

Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher-level positions

WCQR has often promoted from within and has trained staff to qualify for higher-level positions being offered. We offer training programs for all staff.

- In 2022, all staff participated in group Leadership Training of the following literature:
  - Courage is Calling, by Ryan Holiday.
- In 2021 and 2022, members of the PAR Leadership Team included one member from each of their departments/stations in training and meeting for Future Leaders
- January 18-20, 2022- Vision Week held virtually via Zoom for all PAR Team Members. This is a time of training, as well as encouragement.
- Fall 2021- New employees read and were led thru training of the following literature:
  - Dare to Lead, by Brene Brown.
